

Joseph Dehner
Chair – International Practice Group
Frost Brown Todd, LLC

Mr. Dehner concentrates his practice on international business transactions, e-commerce and securities disputes. He counsels a wide variety of companies, domestic and foreign, on issues confronting global business, including transnational investment, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, customs and trade issues, international business structures, distribution and agency agreements and the resolution of international disputes. He is business counsel to emerging digital technology firms. He represents companies, investors, securities brokerage firms, brokers and public customers in disputes involving the securities laws and claims involving takeovers, fiduciary duty, fraud, negligence and securities statutes. In 1975 Mr. Dehner joined Kyle Conlan Wulsin Vogeler in Cincinnati, Ohio, after a two-year federal appellate clerkship. That firm merged into Frost & Jacobs LLP in 1978, and became Frost Brown Todd LLC in 2000. Mr. Dehner co-chairs the firm's International Group for over ten years.

Mr. Dehner has an A.B. from Princeton University and a J.D. from Harvard Law School. He is also the Chair of the Southern Ohio District Export Council.
